MYERS HOUSE
Newport, New Castle County, Delaware

Owner: The Ephraim Myers Estate

Date of Erection: Middle Eighteenth Century

Present Condition: Good

Number of Stories: Two

Materials of Construction: Quarter round, projecting brick base course and foundation walls. Brick walls. Front and back built at different times, also East and West ends, but consistent in style. Wood shutters and blinds. Interesting interior woodwork, paneling in many rooms. Character of this similar to that in the nearby Galloway House (HABS Del-132).

Other Existing Records: Offices of Recorder of Deeds, Register of Wills and Bureau of Assessment of New Castle County.

Additional Data: The brickwork is somewhat rough, with rather large joints, laid in Flemish bond, some black headers used, brick varied and unevenly burned. Pent eave on entire front; no dormer windows in front facade.
